Anne Seurnyck has been practicing with Foster Swift's Administrative and Municipal Practice Group since her arrival at the firm. She currently serves as the firm President and Chair of the Executive Committee. Her entire career has focused on the representation of municipalities and public entities. Anne has extensive experience in drafting and reviewing ordinances and policies, serving as general counsel, counseling clients on Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Open Meetings Act issues, and working with communities on millage and Michigan Campaign Finance Issues. Anne also has an expertise in library law.

Following the discussion / Q&A with Anne, we will open the floor for time to "Connect with Friends." We all feel a bit disconnected during this unusual time. Let's take a moment to engage with friends from around the state. Discussion will be facilitated by FOML board member Rebecca Higgerson (Director of Brandon Township Library) and FOML president Jill Marie Mason (Associate Director of Albion College Library).
